HARPC – Microbial Control

There are several control points in our HARPC Plan related to cleaning and sanitation to control contamination by pathogenic organisms. The controls are validated by testing each lot of finished product for Salmonella, which must be Negative/375 grams. There is no “Kill Step” in the production of active yeast products as a kill step would inactivate the yeast. End users are responsible for the ultimate microbial control of yeast raised products. Do not eat raw yeast raised dough.
